

I was born in Wooster, Ohio and attended Norwayne High School. I attended Baldwin-Wallace College and graduated in 1992 with a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education and Specific Learning Disabilities (SLD). I taught in Berea City Schools and Painesville Township Schools working with special needs children. I came to Bellevue City Schools in 1994, working with special needs students. I received a Masters Degree in Education from Heidelberg College and a Reading Endorsement in 1998. I have been teaching fourth grade students since 2000.
